WEEK ONE

Unmet Love Needs

Your family matters. . . to God, to your church family, and to your generation and generations to come!

What really matters?

- That you know who you are in Christ so you can pass that on.
- That you realize how your responses to what life has dealt you are impacting all of your relationships.
- That the success of your family depends on how much truth you are walking in.
- That you are aware that we are in a spiritual battle for the preservation of our families.

Let's look at our basic need for love and how it has been distorted.

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."

-John 13:34

"I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ and to know this love that surpasses knowledge - that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God."

-Eph. 4:17b-19

We are born into this world extremely NEEDY - physically, emotionally and spiritually. Needs create an opportunity for love. Needs create an opportunity for intimacy. Then life happens and our hearts are wounded, so we create our own walls of defense and intimacy is destroyed.

We are all created in the image of God and have a basic need for love. In our culture, love is very loosely defined and is usually more like use, manipulation or control.

God's definition of love is defined in I Cor. 13:4-8 as "patient and kind, does not envy, does not boast, is not proud, is not self-seeking, is not easily angered, keeps no record of wrongs, does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth, always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres and it never fails".

God intended for these needs for love to be met through a mother and a father. Our parents weren't perfect, and many of our love needs were not met. We will seek to have these needs met in any way that we can, and it is usually through:

- demanding love,
- addictions (performance, food, sexual, work, drug or alcohol)
- explosive anger
- denial

And we wonder why life doesn't go well. . .

Many of us are suffering the effects of unmet love needs because of NEGLECT (the memory that never was). Neglect can result in:

Problems with intimacy with God, spouse, children

Inability to bond

Fear and lack of trust

Rejection

Fear to hope for dread of being a disappointment

Inability to express needs or emotions

The wounded heart of a neglected and/or abused child believes lies that can impact him/her for life such as:

I'm not lovable

There is something wrong with me

I'm not wanted

I'm not worthy to be loved

Then we consciously or unconsciously make VOWS which are promises we make to take care of ourselves like:

I won't need love.

I'll never trust anyone.

I won't burden anyone.

I'll meet my own needs.

VOWS need to be broken because these are areas where we have shut God out. There is a sample prayer to renounce a vow and break it's power over you at the end of this lesson.

Recognizing you have unmet love needs is the first step to healing.

Recognizing Some Areas of Unmet Love Needs

	Mom	Dad
Freely gave me appropriate and frequent touches
Spoke words of affirmation over me
Played with me
Made me feel welcome and wanted
Was happy with my gender, looks, weight, etc.
Loved me unconditionally
Said "I love you" often
Taught me how to give and receive forgiveness
Liked me
Spoke a positive future over me
Recognized my spiritual gifts, my unique qualities
Was present in my life (physically and emotionally)
Freely gave me appropriate and frequent touches
Took time to "know" me, my hopes, dreams and aspirations
Valued relationship with me more than the family image, money or addictions
Listened to me, honored my opinions and desires
Shared God with me in words and actions
Trained me, helped me learn new things
Celebrated me (birthdays, special events)
Discipline with love, not fear or control
Made our home a safe and welcoming place
Led our family spiritually
Respected each other

There is usually a time of grief that needs to follow this recognition as you begin to realize, maybe for the first time, how life could have been so different for you.

Sample prayer to forgive your parents for not meeting your needs:

Mom/Dad, with the help of God’s Spirit, I choose to forgive you for not meeting all of my love needs. My life could have been so different. I see now that in many ways your neglect caused me great pain. But I forgive you. And, Lord Jesus, forgive me for judging them for this lack of nurture, comfort, and -----
----- . I give you permission to take the hurt and bitterness I have held on to all these years. I choose to give it to you and I turn my mom and dad over to you now for your judgement. I release them and let them go. Thank you for your forgiveness. Help me to bring all my unhealthy patterns to death on your cross and help me to learn to walk a new way in expressing me needs and meeting the needs of those I love so dearly. In Jesus’ name. Amen.

Sample prayer to heal your heart from unmet love needs:

Lord Jesus, I see now how many of my love needs were not met as you intended. My heart was wounded very young, and I have covered my pain with denial, unknowingly, or acted out in demands and anger against those I want to love the most. Forgive me for my judgments of my parents in these areas. Please forgive me if I have judged others for being needy or if I have vowed not to need. Forgive me for vowing I won’t have any needs.

Bring the structures to death on the cross of not having any needs, withdrawing from life, not having the ability to find intimacy, putting up walls in relationships, and -----.

Thank you for cleansing me with your blood and now allowing me to plant a new seed of expressing my needs in a healthy way. Help me believe that being in need is an opportunity for love and intimacy. Open my heart to receive your unconditional love and to love others in that same way. In Jesus’ name. Amen.

Sample prayer to break the power of a specific vow:

Lord Jesus, forgive me for making an inner vow that _____. I realize in this area of my life I have taken control and shut You out. I renounce this vow and break it's power over me. I forgive _____ for tempting me to make this vow and I ask you to forgive me for judging him/her. I speak to my heart, mind, soul and body to no longer obey this inner vow. Lord Jesus, bring new life where this inner vow once brought death. I choose to bless those who tempted me to make this vow. In Jesus' name, Amen.

The Love Need of a Father's Blessing

"When Esau heard his father's words, he burst out with a loud and bitter cry and said to his father, 'Bless me - me too, my father!'" Gen. 27:34 Esau wept aloud when he heard his blessing went to his brother Jacob.

Sample Father's Blessing

My son/daughter, I want to tell you how much I love you and how proud I am of you. I feel so blessed that God gave you to me as my child. Forgive me for the times that I didn't tell you I love you when you needed to hear it. Forgive me for the times that I wasn't there for you when you needed me. Forgive me where I ever caused you to feel unloved or not valued. I am so sorry for times I didn't know how to meet your heart needs.

You are so precious in my sight. I am so proud to be your dad. You are one of a kind. There is no one else like you and God has great plans for your life. He has gifted you with _(name the spiritual gift(s) you recognize)_____ and has given you special talents such as _____. I see you could become _____.

I bless you to be the man/woman God has called you to be.

I bless you to know God intimately.

I bless you to walk in the fullness of the Spirit, recognizing His gift and displaying His fruit.

I bless you to be mighty in His Kingdom and impact generations.

I bless you to be fruitful and multiply.

I bless you to be a godly husband/wife and know how to meet your family's love needs.

I bless you to be in health and prosper, even as your soul prospers.

I bless you to know love and to give it away.

I bless you to know and walk in your God-given destiny.

Homework:

Use your bookmark to speak your true identity over yourself and your family this week. Meditate on who your Heavenly Father says YOU are.

WEEK TWO

Honor and Respect

Spiritual Laws:

We live in a legal universe, governed by physical laws. Laws are not negated based on your ignorance or unbelief of them. We are also governed by spiritual laws.

How the Law of Sowing and Reaping as it Affects our Families:

“Do not be deceived, God will not be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. The One who sows to please his sinful nature will reap destruction; the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. Let us not become weary in doing good for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.”

-Galatians 6:7-9

We are always sowing, we are always reaping. There is no neutral seed. It is either life or death.

We sow by our words, our attitudes and our actions. Life and death are in the power of the tongue. We learned last week, neglect can be a seed. And, our attitudes, actions and words are indicators of what is in our heart. “For out of the overflow of the heart, a man speaks.” (Matthew 12:34b)

How the Law of Judgments Impacts Communication:

“Do not judge, or you too will be judged. For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged and with the measure you use it will be measured to you.”

-Matthew 7:1-2

- We reap what we have sown in judgment
- We hear through our judgments
- Expectations based on judgments hinder change

The Consequences of not Honoring our Father and Mother:

“Honor your father and mother, as the Lord your God has commanded you, so that you may live long and that it may go well with you in the land the Lord your God is giving you.”

-Deut. 5:16

Some common things we judge our parents for that we end up reaping in our own life or through our spouse are: divorce, adultery, abortion, control, perfectionism, conditional love, abandonment, abuse of any kind, and the lack of spiritual leadership of the father.

Sample prayer to help you bring what you are reaping to death on the cross

(Dad, Mom, or whomever), I forgive you for _____. Lord Jesus, I see the impact my sin of judging has caused me and others, and I want to repent for that and ask you to forgive me for judging my (Dad, Mom or whomever) for _____. I give you permission now to do heart surgery. I choose to give you the _____ (hurt, pain, bitterness and/or resentment) _____ I've held in my heart all these years. I let it go. I turn _____ over to you now for your judgment. I receive your forgiveness and ask that you would now bring the reaping and the habit patterns that are in place because of this judgment to death on the cross. I call to resurrection life in me _____ (the opposite of what you judged). With the help of your Spirit, I choose to bless (name) _____, who wounded me. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Disciplining with Honor and Respect:

- What seeds of discipline were sown into you?

- How do you see God's discipline?

- Disciplining with love and honor reaches our child's heart and builds relationship vs. discipline with control, fear and intimidation.

Giving the Gift of Honor and Blessing:

- You can't give something you never received (see unmet needs list in week 1)
- It's the cry of every child's heart.
- Blessings can include meaningful touch, spoken words, expressing high value, picturing a special future and active commitment
- Recognize and call out their individual spiritual gifting. (See resource at end of this lesson.)

Spiritual Gifts Resource

(an excerpt from Ron and Sherry Torbert's Passion for Purpose curriculum, reprinted by permission)

"Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. We have different gifts, according to the grace given us. If a man's gift is prophesying, let him use it in proportion to his faith; if it is serving, let him serve; if it is teaching, let him teach, if it is encouraging, let him encourage; if it is contributing to the needs of others, let him give generously; if it is leadership, let him govern diligently; if it is showing mercy, let him do it cheerfully."

-Romans 12:4-8

Understanding your main spiritual gift is critical to you determining your specific call in the kingdom of God. In addition to the scripture in Romans, you will also find spiritual gifts listed in Ephesians 4 and 1 Corinthians 12. If you are not serving in the capacity God has called us to do, you will experience burnout. When you are functioning in the center of His will, you will draw life from what you do.

If you have experienced a great deal of wounding and trauma in your life, your spiritual gift may be camouflaged by your wounding. You may think you have a mercy gifting due to experiencing so much pain yourself and having empathy for others. However, once you receive some healing, your true gift may immerge. One friend grew up in a very dysfunctional family and she had to organize to keep things manageable. She thought leadership was her gift. Her spiritual gift of prophesy was not discovered until she experienced healing through the principles taught in Passion for Purpose. Another friend thought her gift was serving and was experiencing burnout. Discovering her gift was mercy, she no longer had to be responsible for meeting everyone's needs. She was able to set boundaries and learned how to burden-bear rightly.

How do we identify our gift(s)? Taking a spiritual gifts assessment will help. Most of these tests only analyze what you have already been doing and do not give you an accurate picture. I would direct you to the free test Marilyn Hickey has on her website because it covers just the seven gifts listed in Romans 12. You can find this test at www.marilynandsarah.org. Click on free resources. Then in the search bar, type in the

Know Your Ministry test. Her book Know Your Ministry is also a recommended resource. Based on our own experience as well as from Marilyn Hickey's ministry gifts teachings, here is a synopsis of how each gift manifests, how the person with this gift feels misunderstood and how the enemy targets this gift in childhood: (Unhealed wounds effect whether the gift can flow through someone to hurt or to bless others.)

Prophecy: has a strong need to speak a message verbally, often frank and direct; sees things as black and white; hates evil; discerns character and motives of people, likely operates in a word of knowledge gifting as well

How misunderstood: can be seen as harsh, a know it all, intolerant, may not have a lot of friends due to boldness

How the enemy targets the person with this gift: feels unheard, feels he doesn't have a voice

Serving: works behind the scenes, meets practical needs quickly, works better with short-term goals, seems to have the ability to work long hours, remembers specific likes and dislikes of others, has a hard time saying no

How misunderstood: is so practical he may not appear spiritual, may appear pushy, can hide behind his gift, may neglect his own family

How the enemy targets the person with this gift: uses comparison, has feelings of inadequacy

Teaching: emphasizes accuracy of words, tests knowledge of those teaching him, believes his gift is foundational to all gifts, likes to research to validate truth

How misunderstood: may appear proud, has a lack of warmth and feeling when speaking, neglects practical needs, seems to put too much emphasis on detail

How enemy targets the person with this gift: appears prideful, raised around lying spirits

Encouraging: is able to prescribe precise steps of action, is always interested in practical application of teaching or scripture, loves people, is positive, sees the good that can come from difficult situations

How misunderstood: may appear over-confident, may seem to oversimplify due to steps of action, may appear to take scripture out of context.

How enemy targets the person with this gift: feels criticized, depression in family line

Giving: uses funds wisely, encourages others to give, doesn't like to bring attention to his gift, likes to be a part of what he gives to, enjoys meetings needs without the need of an appeal

How misunderstood: may be judged for focusing only on temporal values, could be misunderstood as wanting to control the work or person, doesn't like pressure appeals, may disregard his own or family's needs

How the enemy targets the person with this gift: grows up with a poverty mentality

Leadership: governs or rules, loves long-range goals, is motivated to organize work he is responsible for, knows what and who is needed to accomplish a task, is more task-oriented than people-oriented, is visionary, tends to stand on the sidelines until responsibility is turned to him, is able to endure criticism of workers in order to complete the ultimate task

How misunderstood: is often driven, may be seen as calloused because he is task oriented; makes fellow workers feel misused due to his lack of explaining tasks; may seem to view people as resources because he may feel tasks are more important than people

How the enemy targets the person with this gift: being taught performance makes one valuable, pride

Mercy: sensitive to people's feelings, emotions and reactions; desires to remove hurts and bring healing to others; has greater concern for mental distress than physical distress; comforts; absorbs the pain of others; is usually not firm, but gentle and compassionate; is drawn to others with the same gift

How misunderstood: easily offended by what hurts others, may appear weak because he avoids firmness, is guided by feelings, may be misunderstood by the opposite sex due to his compassion

How the enemy targets a person with this gift: - not allowed to show or express emotions

Understanding your main gift and the main giftings of your spouse and/or family members helps in building relationships. Ron is gifted as a teacher. He believes teaching the Word, rightly discerned, should be enough. Sherry is gifted as an encourager. She relies heavily on application of the Word to an individual's personal life. They are different, but when understood, they are able to complement each other rather than try to make the other person be like them. It helps resolve conflicts.

You can ask others who know you to confirm the gift you discover! ENJOY THE GIFT! It is not something you work for or earn. The Holy Spirit's gifts and fruit are His work in and through you.

WEEK THREE

Home Security

Do you have a home security system? What does it protect? Do you have the most valuable thing protected?

Let me suggest that the most important thing you have to protect is your heart and the hearts of your loved ones. Nothing could be more important. The word heart includes your feelings, your will, and your intellect. It's the center of everything. In other words, it's YOU, your whole being. "As a man thinks in his heart so is he." Prov. 23: 3.

Who is the enemy that would want to attack your heart?

"For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms." Eph. 6:12

We must know who our real enemy is (it's not our spouse) and understand how he operates if we want to be victorious in the battle for our homes. We are not to be unaware of the devil's schemes (2 Cor. 2:11).

- The devil's objective: to steal, kill and destroy (John 10:10)
- The devil's strategy: to get you to believe a lie about God, yourself or others

"You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies." John 8:44

- Jesus' purpose: to destroy the works of the devil

"The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil's work."
I John 3:8

- Jesus strategy: to bring truth

"I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. John 14:6

"Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." John 8:32

"But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come." John 16:13

WE CAN BE VICTORIOUS, BUT WE MUST BE PREPARED FOR BATTLE:

"I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world."
John 16:33

"You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world." I John 4:4

"No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us."
Rom 8:37

How do we wage war?

- Prayers of confession and forgiveness and by repenting of the lies we have believed.
- With the truth of God's Word
- By putting on the full armor of God for protection (Eph. 6:13-18)
 - Belt of truth, breastplate of righteousness, feet shod with gospel of peace, shield of faith (belief) , helmet of salvation, sword of the spirit and praying in the spirit.
- By submitting to God, resisting the devil and he will flee (James 4:7)

The devil hasn't changed his approach or his scheme from what he did in the beginning.

"Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree in the garden'?" The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden, but God did say, 'You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.'" "You will not surely die," the serpent said to the woman. "For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." Gen 3:1-5

That first thing he did was to try to get Eve to doubt she heard from God. His question was "Did God really say?" He wanted Eve to doubt what God told her. Then he says that what God said wouldn't happen. In other words, you can do anything you want even if it is contrary to God's word and there will be no consequence.

The result was that Eve was deceived and she ate the fruit from the tree and then gave some to her husband who was with her and he ate also and now we are all in trouble.

Satan tried the same approach with Jesus in Luke 4:1-2:

“Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the desert, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and at the end of them he was hungry. The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread.” Jesus answered, “It is written: ‘Man does not live on bread alone.’” The devil led him up to a high place and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And he said to him, “I will give you all their authority and splendor, for it has been given to me, and I can give it to anyone I want to. So if you worship me, it will all be yours.” Jesus answered, “It is written: ‘Worship the Lord your God and serve him only.’” The devil led him to Jerusalem and had him stand on the highest point of the temple. “If you are the Son of God,” he said, “throw yourself down from here. For it is written: “He will command his angels concerning you to guard you carefully; they will lift you up in their hands so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.”” Jesus answered, “It says: ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’”

Satan tried to get Jesus to doubt what God had spoken over Him. Jesus replied with the truth of God’s word which is the same weapon that we have today.

Satan’s primary scheme is to try to deceive us and get us to believe something that isn’t true. We then act on what we believe to be true. That lie can be about God, your spouse, your children, yourself or anyone or anything. When we believe his lies, we are in bondage. When we know the truth, the truth will set us free!

Here are some examples of lies we believe:

- I don’t matter
- Nobody really cares
- God won’t be there for me
- Nothing good ever happens

It is possible to intellectually believe the truth of God's Word but be unable to believe it in your heart. We act out of what we believe is true.

SOME IMPORTANT FACTS ABOUT FORGIVENESS:

- It shuts the door to the enemy.
- It is for the person forgiving.
- Must be from the heart (Matthew 18:35).
- It affects your spirit, soul and body.
- It is a supernatural act requiring the help of the Holy Spirit.

Forgiveness is not: denying hurt or anger, saying what someone did to you is right or wrong, forgetting the offense, condoning what was done, or making excuses for why it was done.

Unforgiveness results in bad fruit: bitterness, anger, resentment, illness, sleeplessness, depression, a hard and unteachable heart, broken relationships with others and with God.

The fruit of forgiveness is peace and joy, good health, the ability to rest well, a stable mind, a soft and loving heart, open and honest relationships and the ability to hear and enjoy God.

CHOOSE FORGIVENESS! It's life or death.

Sample prayers to forgive others, God, and yourself:

Forgiving Others:

Lord Jesus, _____ has wounded me by _____. I really don't feel like forgiving. In my flesh, I want to retaliate. However, since forgiveness is for me, I would like to ask the Holy Spirit to help me forgive _____ from my heart. _____, I forgive you for _____. I do not want to hold on to bitterness and anger. Take my hurt to the cross and help me cancel the debt I have against him/her. If I crossed the line and judged this person for what he/she did, please forgive me for that. I receive your forgiveness now and choose to walk in your unmerited favor and grace. I choose to bless _____. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Forgiving God:

God, I know you did nothing wrong, but I became angry at you and judged you when you did not _____. I have been harboring unforgiveness in my heart and not wanting to admit it. By the power of the Holy Spirit, I choose to forgive you and release all my anger, bitterness, disappointment and sorrow to the cross today. I also ask you to forgive me for judging you. Thank you for forgiving me and giving me a new relationship with you. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Forgiving Yourself:

Lord Jesus, when I sinned against you by _____, I felt like I could never be forgiven. I have judged myself to be bad. I have been angry at myself and consequently have not only hurt myself, but others as well, by my own self-condemnation. I've been beating myself up for years. I am grateful to know that you don't condemn me. _____ (Say your name) _____ I forgive you for _____. Jesus, forgive me for judging myself and give me a fresh start today. Thank you for your blood that cleanses me from all unrighteousness. Help me walk in a newness of life today, knowing that you have forgiven me. In Jesus' name. Amen.
